

Master Kong Dream Scholarship Program (1-semester study abroad at Waseda University for undergraduate students)

I. Outline of the Program

Tingyi Holding Corporation (also known as “Master Kong”) and Waseda University have collaborated to establish the Master Kong Dream Scholarship Program, in order to help top achieving students study abroad during one-semester. Through the “Dream Plan”, this program aims to inspire students to consider their connection to the surroundings and the meaning of it, in the hope that they will become future leaders, armed with an international perspective and capable of exerting personal influence.

II. Overview of the Program

1. Partners

- Destination university: Waseda University
- Origin universities: Peking University, Tsinghua University, Fudan University, Shanghai Jiaotong University, Zhejiang University
- Living assistance provider in Japan: subcontractor

Please note that a balance in the number of students from each partner university as well as a balance in the number of applications to schools may be sought, depending on the situations.

2. Scholarship Recipients

Exceptional undergraduate students at five top Chinese universities (with some priority given to students based on assessed economic need)

3. Scholarship plan

Once per semester, the subsidy provided to each student shall equal ¥900,000 (approximately 45,000 yuan), including the cost of a round-trip airfare from China to Japan and the cost of room and board in Japan. Waseda University shall cover the entire cost of tuition.

Caution: Not all courses published in the Syllabus Search are open to Exchange Students. Also, please be aware that the information contained on these web sites is subject to change. For fixed information about course guidelines, please refer to the syllabus distributed by your undergraduate school upon your arrival at Waseda University.

◎GPA

If your home university does not calculate GPA, we will be judging based on your transcript(s) and your Grading System Chart. In order to satisfy our GPA requirement of 3.0 out of 4.0, you will roughly need to score 75 points on a 100-point scale.

◎Credit transfer

Please make sure to consult with staff of your home university in China. Please note that the decision of credit transfer will be made by your home university, and there are cases where the credits taken at Waseda university may not be accredited.

4th Stage: Pre-departure orientation

◎Timing and duration

Around 1 week early March for Spring admission & early September for Fall admission

◎Location

Shanghai area (Fudan University or Shanghai Jiaotong University)

◎Details

- 1 The orientation aims to create deeper understanding and connection between participating students and Tingyi, by spreading the key goals of the Dream Scholarship, as well as Tingyi's operating vision and organizational culture. A visit to the head office can be arranged one day during the pre-departure orientation.
- 2 It should prepare students in advance for the Dream Plan, by imbuing them with a positive outlook and sense of social responsibility.
- 3 A Tingyi alumna may initiate ceremonies, and help students of the five universities to understand each other and establish a sense of camaraderie.
- 4 Students will take a course in basic daily Japanese and Japanese life basics to help them better adapt to life in Japan.

① Visits to Japanese food companies (including companies related to the Tingyi Group)

② Visits to Japan's cutting edge research and development centers

2 Participation in local civic and volunteer activities

① Visits to local Japanese rebuilding projects

② Attend various cultural exchange activities

3 Arrange for students to participate in various internally organized Waseda University activities

① Activities regularly organized by the ICC (International Community Center)

The ICC is a cultural exchange society mainly for students. The ICC transcends national and cultural boundaries to stimulate mutual exchange and organize various activities with the goal of helping students discover new culture and values.

② Activities regularly organized by WAVOC

(WASEDA University Hirayama Ikuo Volunteer Center)

WAVOC is an organization of Waseda University that serves as the driving force behind Waseda University's contributions to society and the organizing of activities, based on its guiding concepts: "connect the university with society", "to experience a wide range of educational opportunities", and "to support students as they contribute to society."

◎Daily life in Japan

Waseda University shall arrange all accommodations. Accommodations shall basically be within 40 minutes of campus by train, with one room for 2 students, basic furniture and appliances provided, and a communal kitchen and bathroom.

VI. Program Follow-up in China

◎After Repatriation

1 Tingyi shall provide employment assistance and guidance

An internship shall be arranged, according to the student's major and interest, at a suitable Tingyi department. (Time and location to be determined)

2 Participation in social activities in China

Waseda University and Tingyi shall arrange an appropriate social activity, along with a practical plan, as a necessary stage in fulfilling the Dream Plan.

3 Tingyi Alumni Association

In collaboration with the Tingyi Waseda Alumni Association, this association seeks to stimulate communication between scholarship recipients from the same and different periods through sharing of achievements and experiences, community organizing, and other activities, with the goals of continually expanding the program's external influence, providing advice and support to future students in the program, and establishing a sense of belonging within the group.

◎Recording activities and announcing achievements

1 Recording activities

Students can record the progress of their Dream Plans in video, photographs, writing and in other ways, to assist in sharing their achievements later. Students can widely publicize their achievements through Tingyi Group media, within the exchange student society, and on social media. This serves to enhance the influence of the program, drive discussion within Chinese society, and further elevate the ideas behind the program.

2 Publishing achievements

Six months after students return, a Dream Plan conference shall be held to publicize the students' achievements. The conference shall be held with the assistance of Tingyi's Shanghai corporate headquarters or an appropriate venue at Peking University. Students will have the opportunity to give reports in video or other format and share their academic exchange experience with Tingyi Group executives and the public. Outbound students on the program shall also be invited in order to connect the two groups of students and expand the impact of different groups of Dream Planners.
