TIMELINE

> Selection Criteria

When selecting McCall MacBain Scholars, selection committees look for evidence of:

Exceptional character
Community engagement
Leadership potential
Entrepreneurial spirit
Academic strength
Intellectual curiosity

> Application Process

The McCall MacBain Scholarship application is separate from and earlier than McGill graduate admissions. After applying for the scholarship, applicants should apply directly to McGill programs.

More than 250 semi-finalists will be invited to regional interviews, either in-person (for Canadians) or online. Afterwards, up to 85 finalists will be invited to Montréal for final interviews. Thirty McCall MacBain Scholars (20 Canadians, 10 international students) will be selected each year.

"When you read the qualifications, it's so easy to feel like someone out there is more qualified than you. But the application helps you appreciate just how much you've accomplished. You learn so much about yourself through the process – just apply!"

— NICO WALTENBURY, 2021 SCHOLAR

Discover Montréal, Canada

Montréal is one of the top student destinations in the world. It is the second-largest city in Canada, with direct flights to 130+ cities worldwide, and welcomes students from across Canada and around the world.

Our city is vibrant, diverse, and multicultural, with over 100 languages spoken. While you don't need to know French to study at McGill, you'll often hear English and French used interchangeably when exploring Montréal's diverse, colourful neighbourhoods.

Montréal is known as Tiohtià:ke in Kanien'kéha, and Mooniyang in Anishinaabemowin. It is the traditional territory of the Kanien'keha:ka (Mohawk).

Affordable and Dynamic

Rated as one of North America's most affordable cities, Montréal allows students to enjoy a high quality of life while accessing job opportunities in different economic sectors.

McGill University

With over 150 eligible master's and professional programs to choose from, McGill is the place for you to broaden your horizons, deepen your perspective, and become an expert in your chosen field.

McGill rates as Canada's best university and 31st in the world by the QS World University Rankings. Founded in 1821, it has a bold history of research and an international student body.

- Over 1,600 tenured faculty members
- Cutting-edge facilities, housed in more than 50 research institutes and centres across two campuses
- Interactive learning experiences and professional development opportunities for graduate students

SCHOLARS

With most scholars pursuing multi-year degrees, up to 75 scholars will be on campus at any given time.

Meet two of our 2022 scholars:

Julian Lam

MPP, Public Policy
Richmond, BC

Julian contributed to UBC's International Relations Student Association, creating a podcast, managing external relations, organizing a speaker series, and serving as the association president. He also served as editor-in-chief of an undergraduate journal and advised a case competition for climate policy solutions.

Sidney Leggett

MSc, Epidemiology
Winnipeg, MB

Sidney built the website for an Indigenous student group, worked to revitalize the data collection process for a non-profit organization and co-created a story-catching website in collaboration with Indigenous community members from three cities. She worked four part-time jobs during the year and spent two summers working as a junior epidemiologist and research intern.
