Peking University

Application Information for International Students

(2005-2006)
Content

University Overview…………………………………………………………….2

Related Information…………………………………………………………….3

Programs and Applications

   Undergraduate Programs…………………………………………………..6
   Master’s Degree and Ph.D. Degree Programs…………………………..8
   MBA Program…………………………………………………………….9
   Visiting Student and Scholar Programs…………………………………11
   Pre-enrollment Training Program………………………………………..13
   Short-term Program………………………………………………………15

* This handbook is available in Chinese, English, Japanese and Korean. In case of any inconsistency, the Chinese Version shall prevail.
* All charges are to be paid by RMB. USD is acceptable according to the prevailing exchange rate. (The cost in USD in this handbook is for your reference)
University Overview

Founded in 1898, Peking University (PKU) is the first national university in Chinese modern history. Peking University now consists of five faculties: Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, Medicine, and Information and Engineering. The University has 31 colleges and 14 departments, and offers 100 undergraduate programs, 221 postgraduate programs, and 199 doctoral programs.

In October 2003, there were 14,240 undergraduates, 8,498 postgraduates and 4,234 doctoral candidates. There were also on campus 1,825 long-term international students and approximately 2,600 short-term international students from 80 countries. Among them, there were 1,292 Degree-Seeking students.

The University has 4,682 full-time faculties, of whom 1,206 are professors and 1,520 are associate professors.

The Peking University library is the largest university library in Asia, with a collection of 7.03 million books and more than 6,500 titles of Chinese and foreign journals and newspapers. The library also serves as a comprehensive modern information center.

Peking University places great importance on academic exchange and cooperation with foreign universities. She has signed agreements with more than 200 universities in 50 countries and regions.

Throughout her one hundred year history, Peking University has emphasized diligence, conscientiousness, truthfulness, and innovation, and has thus produced many outstanding graduates.

International students have the following options of study at Peking University:
(1) Undergraduate or graduate degree-granting programs;
(2) Visiting student status (non-degree granting) for one or two years;
(3) Pre-enrollment training program;
(4) Short-term language courses or Chinese studies programs.

Peking University Homepage: www.pku.edu.cn

If you are interested in applying to Medical Sciences, please contact the Peking University Health Science Center, or visit their website: http://www.bjmu.edu.cn for more information.
Related Information

Specific programs:

Undergraduate: Students are required to complete the curriculum between 4 to 6 years and fulfill the designated number of credits. Upon graduation, he/she will receive a graduation certificate along with the bachelor’s degree.

Master’s: Students are required to complete the curriculum between 2-3 years, fulfill the designated number of credits, complete the master’s thesis and defend of it in front of a panel of experts. Graduates will receive a graduation certificate along with the master’s degree.

Doctorate: Students are required to complete the curriculum between 3-6 years (in normal circumstances), fulfill the designated number of credits, conduct research, complete the doctoral thesis and defend it in front of a panel of experts. Graduates will receive a graduation certificate with the doctoral degree.

Senior visiting students program: Candidates must have at least a Master’s degree. He/she will work under the guidance of a professor in Peking University to conduct research in a specific subject or enhance his/her knowledge of a particular academic discipline. The program is one year, however, upon request the student may be considered for an extension. Upon graduation, the student will receive a certificate.

General visiting students program: Candidates must have completed at least one year of undergraduate study. Under this program, he/she will either study undergraduate modules or enhance his/her proficiency in Chinese language.

Research scholar: Candidate must have a doctoral degree or be conferred as an Associate Professor or higher. He/she will be given access to the school’s resources and be allowed to collaborate with PKU professors to conduct specific areas of research. Candidates are required to have established prior contacts with the professors in their particular fields, or else the application might be nullified. Research scholars enjoy flexible application dates and durations of research, i.e., applications may be submitted anytime, and duration of study may be 1 semester, 1 year or a few months.

Duration of study:

The duration of study for different degrees is as follows: 4 years for undergraduate degrees, 3 years (or in some cases, 2 years) for master’s degrees, and 3 years for doctoral degrees. Students may, in particular cases, reduce or extend the duration of study upon application.

Peking University divides every academic year into spring and autumn semesters, with the latter marking the commencement of the academic year. The autumn semester starts in September and ends in January of the following year while the spring semester begins in February and stops in June. There will be a winter and summer vacation every year. The summer vacation usually lasts 2 months and the school will arrange for seminars and extra-curricular programs to cater to students staying on campus. The winter vacation lasts 3-4 weeks and normally concurs with Chinese New Year.

Requirement of proficiency in Chinese language:

In general, visiting students are required to take the Chinese language proficiency exam after admission. Only those students whose results meet the standard are allowed to take courses in the various departments, while those who fail to meet the standard will be placed, according to the results of the exam, into classes in the International College for Chinese Language Training. For those who have already received an intermediate B certificate or above on the H.S.K. 7 (Hanyu shuiping kaoshi) exam, the Chinese language proficiency exam will be exempted. Senior visiting students are not required to take the Chinese language proficiency exam. Undergraduates, master and doctoral candidates will not be tested after entering a department of study.

Tuition (per year per person)

- Science: From 26,000RMB (or US$3,200) to 32,000RMB (or US$3,900)
- Humanities: From 30,000RMB (or US$3,700) to 40,000RMB (or US$4,900)

For more information, please see the specific programs.

Estimated cost of living (for own reference):

- Accommodation: approximately 20,000RMB/ year (on campus housing: approximately 10,000RMB/ year)
- Board (meals): approximately 10,000RMB/ year
- Transportation and other miscellaneous costs: approximately 5000RMB/ year

Acceptance of admission:
It requires at least 8 weeks from the application deadline for notifications of admission to be sent out. Within this period, we will do our best to inform you of any missing materials in the application. For applicants who submitted complete applications, we will evaluate the application and, if accepted, arrange the necessary examination(s). If admitted, we will send you the admission notice and other relevant documentation. We strive to give acceptance notice as soon as possible, but due to our limited staff, we may be unable to reply your mails or emails promptly.

Medical insurance:

Peking University requires all international students to have sufficient medical insurance throughout the duration of study. At minimum, the insurance must cover accidents and hospitalization. Students can either buy the insurance before coming to China, or else buy it here. Upon registration, foreign students should submit documentation of proof of coverage from their insurance companies (or other relevant bodies) to the school. This documentation must prove that they are covered for accidents and hospitalization within the duration of study. The said documentation should be in Chinese or English.

Failure to submit the aforementioned proof of sufficient insurance will result in refusal to register the student.

Housing information:

There are different types of housing facilities for international students at PKU. However, due to the increase in the number of foreign students in recent years, there may be certain occasions whereby the school is not able to accommodate the requests of all students. Students can choose to reside off campus, but must register with the local police station in their neighborhood. The Office for International Relations can also provide information for off-campus housing.

Housing on campus is under the charge of the Department of Lodging for Foreign Students. For reservations and related information, please contact that office. Phone no: 6275 2264, website: http://www.shaoyuan.com
Programs and Application

Applicants must be non-Chinese citizens in good health, have reached the age of 18, and should abide by Chinese law and the regulations of Peking University. They must also respect the general customs and practices of Chinese society.

Long-term Programs:

Undergraduate Programs

Application prerequisites: Applicants must be below the age of 30, have attained a senior high school diploma and an excellent academic record, and have passed the entrance examination.

Application materials:
1. Peking University Application Form for International Students
2. senior high school graduation certificate (current high school seniors may provide an official letter stating expected graduation date; the diploma, however, must be submitted after graduation upon receipt of the Admission Notification to Peking University),
3. official transcripts for the last three years of senior high school; one letter of recommendation from the applicant's graduating high school,
4. Three passport-sized photos and a photocopy of passport.

The submitted materials must be original documents or notarized copies, and may be either in Chinese or English. Your applications and documents will not be returned.

Application submission period: March 7th to 11th, 2005.
Please visit http://www.oir.pku.edu.cn for the latest information. Applicants must come in person to Peking University to submit their application materials, or entrust someone else to submit the materials on their behalf. At present, mailed materials are not accepted.

Application location: building 3, Shaoyuan, Peking University

Entrance examination dates and location: April 2005, Peking University

Application fee: 830RMB or US$100 (cash or traveler's checks). Non-refundable.

Enrolment Specialties and Faculties and schools:
Humanities:
Dept. of Chinese Language and Literature,
Dept. of History,
Dept. of Philosophy,
School of Archeology and Museology,
School of International Studies,
School of Government,
Dept. of Sociology,
School of Journalism and Communications,
Law School,
Dept. of Art History,
College of Economics,
Guang Hua School of Management
Dept. of English

Science:
Dept. of Psychology,
College of Information Science and Technology,
College of Life Science,
College of Environmental Science
School of Earth and Space Science,
Dept. of Mechanics & Engineering Science
School of Mathematical Sciences,
School of Physics,
College of Chemistry and Molecular Engineering,
Dept. of Information Management

For more information please visit web site: http://www.gotopku.com

Entrance examination subjects:
Humanities: Chinese language, English, Mathematics, as well as a comprehensive test of knowledge of the Humanities

Science: Chinese language, English, Mathematics, as well as a comprehensive test of knowledge of Science

Note: For outlines of the entrance examination or for further information, please contact the Student Enrollment Office of Peking University.
Telephone: (86-10)-6275 9027 Web site: http://www.gotopku.com

Tuition (per year per person)
Science: 30,000RMB (or US$3,700) Humanities: 26,000RMB (or US$3,200)
Master's Degree and Ph.D. Degree Programs

Application prerequisites:

Master's program: Applicants must be below the age of 40, have attained a bachelor's degree, and have passed the entrance examination for master’s candidates. Applicants with an undergraduate degree from Peking University who have an excellent academic record may be admitted by recommendation and thus be exempted from taking the examination.

Doctoral program: Applicants must be below the age of 45, have attained a master's degree, and have passed the entrance examination for doctoral candidates.

Application materials:

Master's program:
1. Peking University Application Form for International Students,
2. a résumé (about 800 characters, must be in Chinese)
3. graduation certificate and bachelor's degree diploma (current undergraduate seniors can provide official letters giving expected graduation date; the diploma, however, must be submitted after graduation, and upon receipt of the “Admission Notification to Peking University”),
4. official undergraduate academic transcripts,
5. two letters of recommendation from the applicant's professors (associate or higher rank), or from persons of similar standing.
6. a photocopy of his/her passport.

For items 3, 4 and 5, the submitted materials must be original documents or notarized copies, and may be either in Chinese or English. Two copies of each are required.

Your applications and documents will not be returned.

Doctoral program:
1. Peking University Application Form for International Students,
2. a resumé, (about 1500 characters, must be in Chinese)
3. graduation certificate and bachelor's and master's degree diplomas (current postgraduate students can provide an official letter stating expected graduation date; the diploma, however, must be submitted after graduation upon receipt of the “Admission Notification to Peking University”),
4. official undergraduate and postgraduate academic transcripts;
5. two letters of recommendation from the applicant's professors.
6. a photocopy of his/her passport.
For items 3, 4 and 5, the submitted materials must be original documents or notarized copies, and may be either in Chinese or English. Two copies of each are required.
Your applications and documents will not be returned.

Application submission period: November 2004. Please visit http://www.oir.pku.edu.cn for the latest information. Applicants must come in person to Peking University to submit application materials, or entrust someone else to submit materials on their behalf. At present, mailed materials are not accepted.

Application location: building 3, Shaoyuan, Peking University.

Entrance examination dates:
- Master's program: January 2005.

Entrance examination location: Peking University.

Entrance examination subjects: Chinese language and two specialties. For further details, please consult the Enrolment Information.

Enrollment specialties: Please contact the Office of Enrollment, Graduate School of Peking University.
- Telephone: 86-10-6275 1354
- Web site: http://grs.pku.edu.cn

Application fee: 830RMB or US$100 (cash or traveler's checks). Non-refundable.

Tuition (per year per person)
- Master’s program:
  - Humanities: 29,000RMB (or US$3600)
  - Science: 33,000RMB (or US$4000)
- Doctoral program:
  - Humanities: 32,000RMB (or US$3900)
  - Science: 40,000RMB (or US$4900)

Notes: For information on examination subjects, assignment of academic advisors, and enrolment specialties, please visit http://grs.pku.edu.cn

MBA Programs

Admission Requirements:
- Applicants must hold non-Chinese citizenship;
- Applicants must be physically and mentally healthy; respect Chinese customs and cultural traditions; observe the Chinese government laws and regulations as well as rules set by Peking University.

c) Applicants must hold bachelor degrees and a minimum of three years’ full time work experience.

Application Procedure and Documents:

d) Required Documents:

1) Peking University Application Form for International Students,
2) Qualified GMAT scores (not less than 600, within 5 years) for all applicants, and Regular Chinese test (HSK) scores (C, Mid-level, within 2 years) for full-time Chinese MBA applicants only
3) Resume
4) Notarized copy of University Diploma/ Degree and official transcript
5) Copy of valid passport
6) Two Referee reports (sealed, with referees’ contact information)

Items 1) through 6) should be in Chinese or English, two copies for each item.

b) Interview:
Shortlist applicants will be put into notice for interview organized by Peking University. Competitive applicants will get the offer. The interviews will be conducted in the middle of May, 2005.

Application Fee: 50 US dollar (cash or traveler’s cheques)
The application fee and documents are not refundable.

Submission Deadline: February 28, 2005

Programs to apply:
Foreign students may apply for IMBA (International MBA) or Regular Chinese MBA at Guanghua. IMBA requires proficiency in English. Regular Chinese MBA requires good command of Chinese. Both of the two programs require two years’ study.

Tuition Fee (for 2 years): US$14,600.00

Admission:
Peking University will send the admitted foreign students the Offer Letters, Visa Application Form(JW202), and Medical Examination Forms by the end of June 2004.

Registration Date: Early September 2004. Please refer to the offer Letter for details.
Contact Information:  (Specific Requirements, Interviews and Admissions)
Attention to: Ms. Wang Xiaoxia
MBA Office
Guanghua School of Management
Tel: 86-10-6275-4858, 6275-1665, 6275-7781
E-mail: mbaadmi@gsm.pku.edu.cn http://mba.pku.edu.cn

Visiting Student and Scholar Programs

Application prerequisites:
General visiting students: Applicants must be below the age of 45 and have attained a senior high school diploma.
Senior visiting students: Applicants must be below the age of 50, have attained a Master's degree or its equivalent, or be a qualified doctoral candidate at another university recognized by Peking University.
Research scholars: Applicants must be below the age of 55 and have attained a rank above associate professor.
Application period: March 14th to March 31st, 2005. (Research scholars may apply anytime.)

Application materials:
For general visiting students:
1. Peking University Application Form for International Students;
2. a resumé, certification of highest degree attained, and official academic transcripts;
3. certificate of Chinese proficiency level,
4. a photocopy of passport,

For senior visiting students:
1. Peking University Application Form for International Students,
2. a resumé, certification of highest degree attained, official academic transcripts,
3. research proposal (no less than 1000 characters),
4. two letters of recommendation from university faculty (associate professor or higher rank),
5. a photocopy of passport

For research scholars:
1. Peking University Application Form for International Students,
2. a resumé, research proposal (no less than 1000 characters),
3. two letters of recommendation from university faculty (professor or higher rank),
4. a photocopy of passport

The submitted materials must be original documents or notarized copies, and may either be in Chinese or English. Your applications and documents will not be returned.

Application fee: 400RMB or US$50 (cash or traveler’s checks). Non-refundable. Send to the International Students Division, Office of International Relations, Shao Yuan Building 2, Peking University, together with the required application materials. (Note: Applications with incomplete materials or without the required fee will not be considered)

Tuition (per year per person)
General visiting students:
  Humanities: 26,000RMB (or US$3,200)
  Science: 30,000RMB (or US$3,700)
Senior visiting students:
  Humanities: 30,000RMB (or US$3,700)
  Science: 34,000RMB (or US$4,100)
Research scholars: Research fee per month is 3,320RMB (or US$400)

Admission for Long term Program: Admission will be determined by the strength of the application package. Upon acceptance, the University will send the “Notification of Admission to Peking University” and the “Visa Application Form for Foreigners” (Form JW202) by the end of June. The applicants will not be notified if their application are not accepted.

Registration Period for Long Term Program: September 2005 (the exact time will be specified in the “Notification of Admission to Peking University”)

Contact information for Long Term Program
International Students Division
Office of International Relations
Attn: MS. XIE Xin
Shaoyuan Building 3
Peking University
Beijing, 100871
People’s Republic of China

Telephone: (86-10)-6275 1230, (86-10)-6275 2747, (86-10)-6275 9398
Fax: (86-10)-6275 1233
E-mail: study@pku.edu.cn
http://www.oir.pku.edu.cn
Pre-enrollment Training

Application prerequisites:
1. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 to 30, and have attained a senior high school diploma and an excellent academic record;
2. Applicants must have attained an elementary level of Chinese, defined as more than one year of full-time Chinese language training or having attained the level 3 certificate on the HSK examination.

Application location: International Students Division, Office of International Relations, Shaoyuan Building 3, Room 103.

Application procedures:
1. Applicants should first submit a senior high school graduation certificate, official transcripts for the last three years of senior high school, and the level 3 certificate of the HSK exam or official transcript of one year of full-time Chinese language training.
2. After reviewing the above materials, Peking University will provide qualified applicants the Application Form for Pre-enrollment International Students and a physical examination form.
3. The applicants should then submit the following materials to the International Students Division of Peking University by May 20, 2005:
   i. Completed Application Form for Pre-enrollment International Students with photo on it;
   ii. Senior high school graduation certificate and official transcripts (original documents or notarized copies in either Chinese, English, French or Japanese);
   iii. Physical Examination Form (with photo and the hospital's seal or physician's signature);
   iv. One letter of recommendation;
   v. Letter from financial guarantor indicating his or her name, profession, telephone number, and contact address;
   vi. Letter from sponsor in China, indicating his or her name, working unit, telephone number, and permanent address.

Application fee: 400RMB or US$50 (cash or traveler's checks). Non-refundable. (Note: Applications with incomplete materials or without the required fee will not be considered.)
Admission: Upon acceptance, the University will send the "Notification of Admission to Peking University" and "Visa Application Form for Foreigners" (Form JW202) by the end of June.

Registration Period: September 2005 (the exact time will be specified in the “Notification of Admission to Peking University”)

Tuition and Housing:
1. Tuition: 21,600RMB or US$2,600 per year per person (teaching materials not included), which must be paid in full at the time of registration.
2. Housing: Peking University provides pre-enrollment training students with accommodation in the Posts and Telecommunications Hotel, located 500 meters west of the main campus.
   Apartments: US$6.50 per day per bed. Two- or three-room apartment with two beds in each room, equipped with air conditioner, color TV, telephone, bathroom, and room-cleaning service. Single room: US$11 per day per room.

Contact information:
International Students Division
Office of International Relations
Attn: Mr. Dong Benxiang, Mr. Zhou Baode, Miss Li Xiaojuan
Shao Yuan Building 3
Peking University
Beijing, 100871
People’s Republic of China

Telephone: (86-10)-6275-2611 (86-10)-6275-1232
Fax: 86-10-6276-5543
E-mail: yklb@pku.edu.cn
http://www.oir.pku.edu.cn
Short-term Programs

Introduction:
The short-term programs for international students consist of training in Chinese Language and Chinese studies, and include group and individual programs. The vast majority of short-term programs are group programs, which are organized jointly by Peking University and a foreign university or educational institution. Individual applications are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. For individual applicants, please see “Individual Application” part. “Cooperative Programs” are not available to individual applicants.

Enrollment Qualifications:
- Non-Chinese citizens,
- applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 60,
- in good health,
- with education background over high school graduation,
- and have a vocabulary of over 800 Chinese characters or have studied Chinese over 80 class hours altogether.

The level of Chinese language proficiency needed by students in group programs is determined by agreement between Peking University and each foreign university or educational institution.

Time:

A. Cooperative Programs: Peking University, in cooperation with foreign universities and educational institutions, makes great effort to promote short-term programs. The exact curriculum of each group program is determined through bilateral agreement.

Current Cooperative Programs:
- Short-term Chinese Language Enhancement Programs:
  - February 21 ---- March 18, 2005
  - June 27 ---- July 22, 2005
  - June 27 ---- August 5, 2005
  - August 8 ---- September 2, 2005
- Short-term Chinese Studies Programs:
  - Mandarin and Chinese Culture Summer School: June 20 ---- July 15, 2005

All the “Cooperative Programs” mentioned above are not available to individual applicants.

B. Semester Programs for Individual Applicants:
1. Spring Semester: February ---- June, 2005
2. Fall Semester: September, 2005 ---- January, 2006

How to Apply:

A. Cooperative Programs:
1. Any foreign school or institution wishing to establish a joint program at Peking University should contact us directly to discuss specific terms of bilateral cooperation.
2. Applicants apply through the foreign school or institution that is working with Peking University. Applicants must complete the International Student Application form for Short-term Studies at Peking University, the original copy of which should be received by the International Students Division two months before the start of the class.

B. Individual Applications:
1. Individual applicants may obtain the International Student Application form for Short-term Studies at Peking University directly from the International Students Division of Peking University. Applicants can also visit www.oir.pku.edu.cn and download the necessary application documents from the homepage of “International Students”.
2. Application submission period:
   b) Fall Semester Programs: April 1st, 2005. Limited vacancies.
3. The applicants should submit the following materials to the International Students Division of Peking University.
   a) Completed International Student Application Form for Short-term Studies at Peking University (typed or printed)
   b) A photo copy of passport information page
   c) Certificate of highest degree
   d) Certificate of HSK exam or official transcripts of full-time Chinese language training
   e) One letter of recommendation
   f) Letter from sponsor in China, indicating his or her name, employment, telephone number, and permanent address. The sponsor should be a permanent resident in China with regular employment. For the sample of the letter, please contact dqlb@pku.edu.cn or +86-10-62757362
   g) 400RMB or US$50 application fee (cash or traveler's checks).
4. Incomplete application materials will not be considered.

Note:
● Group applicants should pay the application fee upon admission.
- Applicants should include the application fee with their submitted application. The full amount of the tuition must be paid one time upon registration.
- The application fee is non-refundable.
- Applicants are required to have medical insurance for hospitalization and coverage for accidents. Those who have their own coverage are required to obtain documentation of proof (in English or Chinese) from the insurance company, to be submitted to the school upon registration. Those who are not covered will be required to buy insurance at registration.
- If there are more than 5 students who enter or leave China through Beijing together, Peking University will provide ground transportation.

Expenses:

A. Application fee: 400RMB or US$50 per person

B. Tuition (textbooks, visits to historical sites, and excursions included)
   - Two-week course 3,100RMB or US$380
   - Three-week course 3,600RMB or US$450
   - Four-week course 4,200RMB or US$520
   - Six-week course 5,500RMB or US$680
   - Eight-week course 6,900RMB or US$850
   - Semester course 13,600RMB or US$1,660
   (The above fees are payable in cash or traveler’s checks).

C. Estimated cost of living: approximately 1,200RMB per month or US$150 per month, not including medical care and personal activities.

General Curriculum:

A. Class hours: Monday to Friday, 4 hours per day, 20 hours per week, extracurricular activities on Saturday.

B. Chinese language course offerings:
   1. Required courses: Chinese reading, spoken Chinese, pronunciation, listening comprehension and video class.
   2. Elective courses: Chinese folk customs, translation, rhetoric, writing, newspaper reading, classical Chinese, and selected readings from contemporary Chinese literature, etc. All courses aim to improve the student’s the ability to use Chinese in real-life situations.

C. Placement into Chinese Instruction Classes: elementary, intermediate, and advanced Chinese classes are provided. Students are placed according to the results of the Chinese language placement exam, taken after admission. The typical size of a class is about 15 students.

D. Chinese Culture Immersion Opportunities
   1. Taijiquan, Chinese painting, Chinese calligraphy, visit to traditional Beijing residential area (hutong), etc.
2. Weekend trips to Datong and Taiyuan in Shanxi Province, Chengde in Hebei Province, Mount Tai and Qufu in Shandong Province, Inner Mongolia, and other historical and cultural sites.
3. Trips to Luoyang, Xi’an, Shanghai and Hangzhou.
4. Fees: from US$20 to US$ 810 per person.

E. Students will receive a Peking University Student ID upon registration, and program certificate and official transcript upon completion of the program.

Accommodations:
A. Student rooms in Shaoyuan Building No. 9: US$20 per day, with color TV, telephone, Internet access, air conditioner and bathroom; two persons share one room.
B. King-size rooms in Shaoyuan Building: with color TV, telephone, refrigerator, Internet access, bathroom, and air conditioner; two persons share one room.
D. Student rooms in Posts and Telecommunications Hotel: equipped with air conditioner, color TV, telephone, bathroom, and room-cleaning service, away from Peking University campus about 300 meters.

In addition, International students are permitted to live off campus; however, they must register their residency at the local police station in their neighborhood.

Contact information:
International Students Division
Office of International Relations
Attn: Ms. LIU xinzhi, Mr. GU Xue
Shaoyuan Building 3, Room 117
Peking University
Beijing, 100871
People’s Republic of China

Tel: 86-10-6275 7362  (86-10)-6275 2747  (86-10)-6275 9398
Fax: 86-10-62759754
E-mail: dqlb@pku.edu.cn
Web address: http://www.oir.pku.edu.cn