Objective

The purpose of this course is to introduce the Chinese people and their culture from perspectives of myths, folktales, festivals, traditional food, folk belief, folk arts and architectures. Within these topics, we will focus especially on some of the key concepts of Chinese culture such as history, safety, family, sacredness, gods, order, and so on.

Proceeding of the Course

Participation and discussion constitute a central part in this course. Attendance is mandatory. Students are expected to complete all required readings prior to class meetings and to actively participate in class discussion. Absence without legitimate reasons will lead to deduction in scores for participation and discussion, and in extreme cases, may lead to a student’s failure in the course.

Paper Assignments

Students need to write two short papers (3-4 pages each, double-spaced and typed with 12-point font) related to Chinese folklore and culture. The instructor will give the topic of the paper one week before the due time of the paper.

No late submission will be accepted unless a legitimate reason is presented to the instructor at least three days in advance. If you have any question concerning how to write papers, please consult with the instructor.

Students also need to prepare an oral presentation on topics of folklore of any culture or country. Students are encouraged to introduce the local custom of their own cultural tradition.

Evaluation

Three parts of the evaluation will be calculated as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Participation and discussion</th>
<th>One oral Presentation</th>
<th>Papers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>20%</td>
<td>30%</td>
<td>50%</td>

</tbody>
</table>
Texts

There is a course reader for this course and it will be available through PKU Summer School arrangements.

Academic Integrity

Participation in this class commits the students and instructor to abide by a general norm of equal opportunity and academic integrity. It implies permission from students to submit their written work to services that check for plagiarism (such as Turnitin.com). It is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with the definition of plagiarism. Violations of the norm of academic integrity will be firmly dealt with in this class.
